The Heart of It

Two things this is really after

Discovery

The beauty of discovering what our community is already sharing — what neighbors are open to, what they have, what they care about. Quiet, unexpected connections that would otherwise have been left to luck.

Lowering the awkwardness barrier

See who's already raised their hand

- Asking feels less like asking.
- Offering feels less like imposing.
- And gathering becomes something that can actually happen

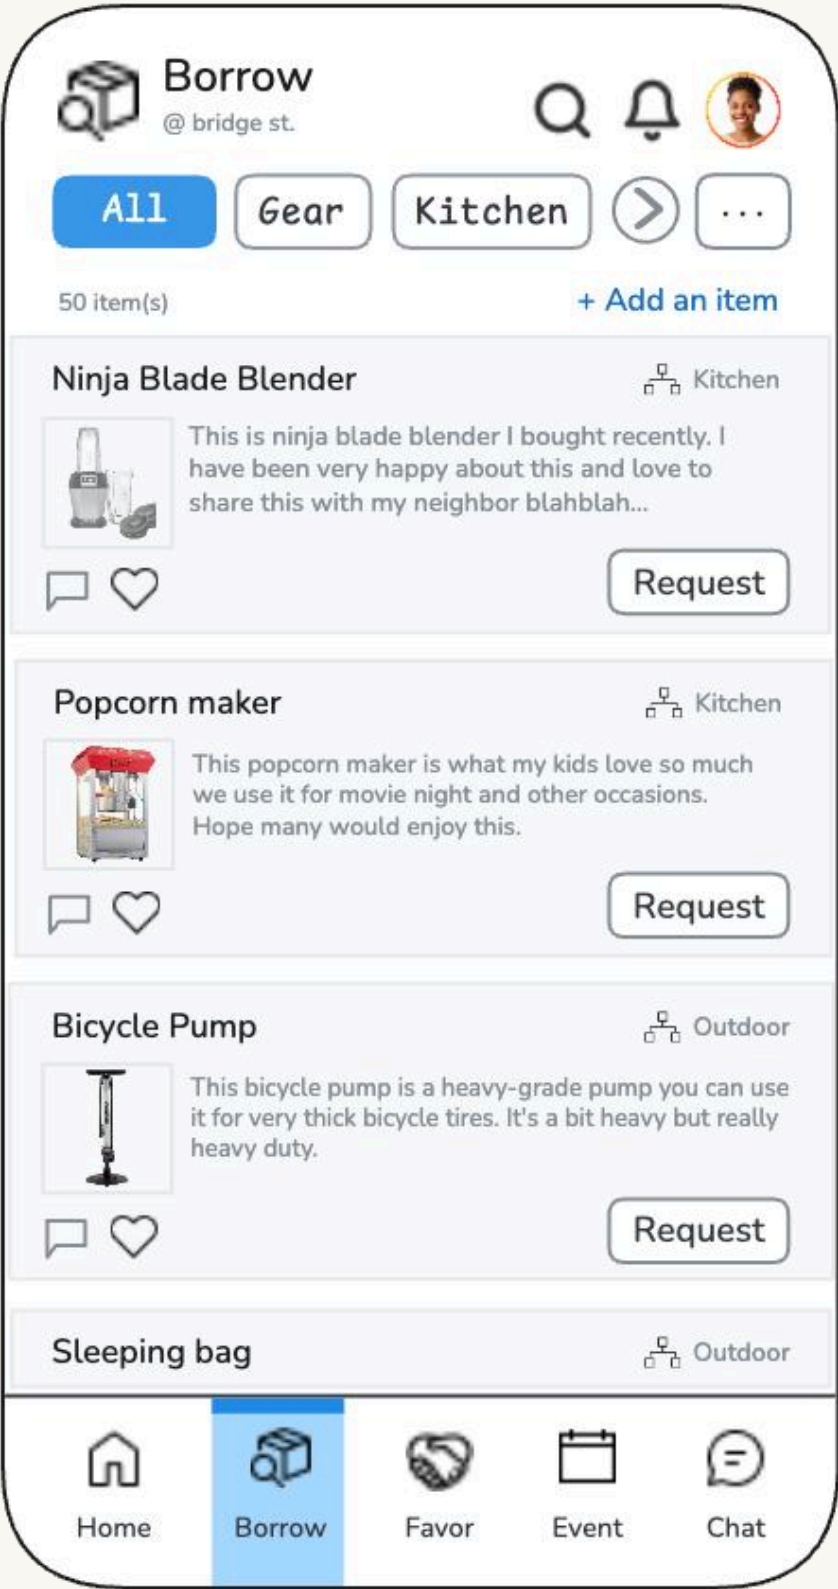

“familiar and effortless”

02— What's Next

Still Rough, Still Listening

These rough draft are in their very early stages. The thinking, though, is what I'd love to hear from you about.

Some ideas will make their way in right away. Others will grow into the project as it takes shape — quiet seeds for future updates.

If anything catches your eye — or feels off — please DM me anytime. I'd love to hear it.

Thank you for being part of this 🙏

More to come soon.
